1. Schizophrenia Spectrum Disorders are characterized by ________________; emotions and behaviors that are often incongruent with their situations; and ________________, including delusions and hallucinations.

   Symptoms of the disorder include the following:

   a. loss of ________________
   b. ________________ symptoms
   c. disorganized ________________
   d. breakdown in ________________
   e. delusions or ________________ not based in reality
   f. narratives of ________________
   g. perceptual disturbances & ________________
   h. disorganized, abnormal, incongruent behavior & ________________

2. How do positive symptoms, negative symptoms, and disorganized symptoms all differ from each other?

3. What are some of the brain abnormalities associated with schizophrenia?

4. The diathesis-stress model involves a combination of ________________ vulnerabilities—diathesis—and ________________ --stress-that both contribute to the onset of schizophrenia.

5. Dissociative disorders are disorders in which conscious awareness becomes ________________ (dissociated) from previous memories, thoughts, and feelings.

   a. Dissociative Identity Disorder has long been known as ________________.
      It is when a person exhibits more than one ________________.
      i. What evidence exists to support DID being a “real thing”?